

SOCIETY

OF

Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

CONSTITUTION.*

I.

THIS association shall be called "The Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis."

II.

The object of the Society shall be to stimulate the critical study of the Scriptures by presenting, discussing, and publishing original papers on biblical topics.

III.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, all of whom, and five others constituting with them a Council, shall be elected annually, and hold office until their successors are appointed.

*The Constitution and By-laws here printed were adopted at the regular semi-annual meeting in Hartford, Conn., on the 13th of June, 1884. See Journal.

IV.

Members shall be elected by the Society upon the recommendation of the Council.

V.

The Society shall meet at least twice a year, at such times and places as the Council may determine.

---

BY-LAWS.

---

I.

It shall be the duty of the President, or, in his absence, of the Vice-President, to preside at all the meetings of the Society ; but, in the absence of both of these officers, the Society may choose a presiding officer from the members present.

II.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify the members, at least two weeks in advance, of each meeting ; to keep a record of the proceedings of such meetings ; and from time to time, at the discretion of the Council, to superintend the publications of the Society.

III.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all the funds of the Society, and to invest or disburse them under the direction of the Council, rendering an account of all his transactions to the Society at each annual meeting.

IV.

It shall be the duty of the Council to propose candidates for membership; to fix the times and places for meetings; to recommend papers for presentation at each meeting; to select the papers to be published in the Journal, and generally to supervise the interests of the Society.

V.

The fee for admission into the Society shall be five dollars, besides which each member shall annually pay a tax of three dollars; but libraries may become members without the fee for admission, and a donation at one time by a single person of fifty dollars shall exempt the donor from all further payments.

VI.

Each member, in consideration of the annual tax, shall be entitled to receive, without additional charge, one copy of each publication of the Society after his election, in addition to which, if he be a contributor to the Journal, he shall receive twenty-five copies of any article or articles which he may have contributed.

VII.

Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may continue in session for the purpose of hearing and discussing papers presented.

EXTRA COPIES OF THE JOURNAL.

The following resolution, supplementary of the By-laws, with reference to the price at which members may procure extra copies of the Journal, was adopted June 13, 1884.

Resolved: That the Secretary be authorized to furnish to members for the purpose of presentation, additional copies of any volume of the Journal, to the number of ten, at the rate of $1 a copy, but that the price to persons not members be the amount of the annual assessment.
